

CoreTech Welcomes Candace J. Reinhart as Sr. Vice President of Operations and Syndications

Newport Beach, CA – January 24, 2019 – Independent technology and equipment lessor CoreTech Leasing Inc., is pleased to welcome Candace J. Reinhart to their executive leadership team as Sr. Vice President of Operations and Syndications. A certified CLFP and highly regarded Board Member of the ELFA \(Equipment Leasing and Finance Association\) where she sat on the Technology Committee, Candace brings proven leadership, formidable experience in operational workflow management, and a passion for the leasing industry. Candace will lead CoreTech’s growth through top-of-the-line operational counsel across diverse and complex projects, monitor risk, and bring substantially enhanced value to all aspects of CoreTech’s bank, client and vendor relationships.

In a dynamic and highly competitive business environment, a robust equipment financing industry, currently valued over $1 trillion, is enabling organizations within and outside the US to remain competitive. Candace earned her Certified Lease and Finance Professional (CLFP) designation—the preeminent credential for equipment leasing and financing professionals throughout the world—in 2016 and has been a member of the Equipment Lease and Finance Association committee for Operations and Technology for the past three years. As a result, Candace brings superior knowledge of the equipment lease and finance product and a wide network of top industry professionals to CoreTech.

Candace began her leasing career with Saddleback Financial Corporation in 1996 and was most recently with First National Capital Corporation as VP of Operations. She has utilized the last two decades to become expert in each seat along the workflow spectrum with some of the top-rated independents in the industry. She has expertly handled a wide range of transaction sizes. Harnessing Candace’s expertise in handling complex transactions through syndications and operations as well as her proven track record of improving business processes and operational efficiencies will allow CoreTech to maintain its leadership across all segments of this growing industry.

Scott McFeters, President of CoreTech Leasing, remarked, “We are proud to welcome a professional of Candace’s caliber and expertise to the team and look forward to her abilities to drive client value and help lead our business from strength to strength. Candace’s extensive and thorough know-how of the equipment financing industry as well as her hands-on approach to adding efficiencies while maintaining scale are exceptional and we look forward to working with her.”

Candace added, “This is a truly exciting time to be joining the CoreTech team. The company’s passion for building long term relationships, leading education and best practices, and being true partners with clients is a business ethic I am thrilled to be a part of. This in addition to their financing expertise and ability to custom design solutions that best address client needs makes CoreTech a growing and formidable player in the industry.”
